

KLOVE has had an especially positive influence on our family. There are few FM radio stations in our area that broadcasts Christian music without having to weed through the preaching and talking. This is especially important for my kids, who listen to this music.